What is the Vocational Training Program?

Language Course & Vocational Training

Learn German and complete a vocational training (Berufsausbildung) in Germany.

Berufsausbildung

combines practical training at a company with theoretical education at a vocational school

Duration

Typically, it lasts 2 to 3.5 years.

Benefits of the Dual Vocational System

Practical Learning

Combines theoretical education with hands-on work experience.

Recognized Qualification

German vocational degrees are recognized internationally.

Payment

Trainees are paid a monthly wage by their employer.

Wide Range of Careers:

Diverse training programs and career options are offered.

High Job Prospects

Many companies hire their apprentices after completion.

Employer Support

Companies actively invest in the development of their apprentices

Vocational Training Program

Our program offers:

- Application service up to 3 German companies for the vocational training
- a German course up to the required level
- trainees who spend part of each week at a vocational school and the other part at a company.
